

*When our daughter was little girl
we often use to say How proud and happy we would be on her Wedding day !*

*Our daughter is not lost to us,
Infact we have gained a son,
We are happy, you can share our joy and see them joined as one !*

*So now we welcome all of you,
To cherish the memories with each one of you.*

Together

We will acquire the energy to share the responsibilities of married life

We will work for the prosperity of our family

We will cherish each other in happiness and stand by each other in sorrow

We will raise strong and virtuous children

We will fill our hearts with strength to fulfill all the needs of our lives

We will fill our hearts with joy, peace and spiritual values

We will always remain life long partners and true friends

His vision, my dreams; his prayers, my beliefs;
His laughter, my happiness; his world, my universe;
His life, my soul; his love my heart;
For a moment, for a lifetime.
We may be joined by marriage for I will be his wife
And he will be my husband
Though the Lord Joined our souls.....
Lord Jalarambapa....

Yesterday....today....and tomorrow
Always...forever...and for eternity
